CREW Boston Educational Foundation Scholarship Overview

CREW Boston is the region's leading commercial real estate professional organization with 500+ members to promote the advancement and parity of women within the commercial real estate industry. The CREW Boston Educational Foundation was established in 2009 as a 501(c)(3) foundation to encourage and support female undergraduate and graduate students to pursue a career in commercial real estate.

The CREW Boston Educational Foundation Scholarship seeks to support and empower promising female students who demonstrate an interest in a career in commercial real estate. In addition to providing financial support, the Scholarship provides mentorship, networking and access to CREW Boston's programming. The Foundation scholarship awards range from $2,500 to $10,000.
